

CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF BIBLE & VIOLENCE
(Applied Arm)

LAUNCH WORKSHOP

10am - 3.30pm, June 4th 2019, Bristol UK

Bristol Baptist College, The Promenade, Duncan House, Clifton Down, Bristol BS8 3NJ

- How do we read texts of violence with victims of violence?
- How can we resist the co-opting of the Bible for violent purposes?

Join us to discuss questions like these, and others, at the launch event for the applied arm of Bristol Centre for the Study of Bible and Violence.

This event is aimed at ministers and others who are interested in practical questions relating to the Bible and Violence. The event will offer a combination of papers and round-table discussion on a range of issues relating to the subject. Offers of papers (15 minutes) are warmly invited:

please email Helen at paynterh@bristol-baptist.ac.uk

Cost £10 or £5 for concessions.

Early bird rate (until 31st January 2019) £8.

Email paynterh@bristol-baptist.ac.uk for more information, or community.learning@bristol-baptist.ac.uk to book your place.

BRISTOL BAPTIST COLLEGE

Twitter: @CSBibleViolence

Facebook: @CSBVBristolBaptistCollege

www.bristol-baptist.ac.uk/study-centres/csbv