

What Christmas celebration is like in Hong Kong?

In Hong Kong, we celebrate the Christmas by having a buffet and enjoying the Christmas light show. We also give Christmas card and presents to some friends as well as party. The churches sing carols in the street on the Christmas eve and have special service on the Christmas day. The Carol in the street is the same with the churches do in the UK, but we don't have the carol service. In the party, we play some party games, exchange presents and have western food.
