

Update: April 2024

Dear Friends

As we embrace the sunshine and showers of April, the Team are busy getting ready for Baptist Assembly next month. We are excited to be able to meet all together in one place as a Baptist family, particularly as this year we get to do this over Pentecost weekend. Please do take time to check out details of Assembly.

The focus of Assembly is very much on the coming of the Holy Spirit as told by Luke in Acts 2. We are looking to embrace different ways of sharing the Good News of Jesus, just as Peter did that first Pentecost.

On Friday afternoon there will be space for deeper resourcing with five streams on offer. Come and join:

- Chris Duffett to learn something about art and evangelism
- the Everyone Everywhere session as we explore how God is leading us to be church right where we are
- BMS World Mission exploring the Road to Reconciliation
- Young Adults and Whole-life Discipleship, with Isabella Senior
- A workshop for people who are a Designated Person for Safeguarding.

Come and join us, come altogether in one place, come ready to be blessed and to bless each other.

Every blessing

Diane, Hilary, Jane, Mary, Mat, Mike, Paul, Sharon, Steve and Wale

April Prayer Diary

The April Prayer Diary is now available to download from our website. The particular themes this month are:

- South Wales Baptist Association
- Support Services Specialist Team
- Baptist Union Environment Network
- Those called to a ministry of chaplaincy

Please print out a copy for those unable to access it.

'Your Faith, Your Online World'

The Baptist Union has been part of a collaboration producing this innovative project aimed at empowering young people aged 11-16 to explore what it means to be a Christian and how that interweaves with navigating life online. The project aims to facilitate a space for self-reflection, faith exploration, and thoughtful, faith aligning online engagement. Click here to find out more about this free resource.

It's Not 'Just' a Parent and Toddler Group

The 'What About the Children?' Report 2023 found that 'over half of early years providers felt that children's personal, social and emotional development had fallen behind and almost half (45%) of parents reported negative impact on their child's social and emotional development and 20% felt their child's language and physical development was negatively affected.' In response, the Gather movement and Daniel's Den have published this new resource which highlights ways in which church-based parent and toddler groups play a vital role in helping to make children school-ready. ## LET'S END POVERTY

Let's End Poverty

Could you bring a group of people together to talk about their hopes, dreams and challenges and the action they would like to see at the General Election, and share their voices with others? Find a useful toolkit on the Let's End Poverty website and once you've recorded your conversations, you can publish blogs, videos or audio clips (assistance is available). Help the voices of your neighbourhood to be heard more widely in this election year, so we can challenge all aspiring politicians to truly listen and commit to action to end poverty. Click here to find out more on the Let's End Poverty website.

The Reading Room

Do you love books? Enjoy sharing what you have read? Do you belong to a book group? The Reading Room is a book group for Baptist women, celebrating three years of reading together and building relationships. They meet bi-monthly via Zoom for an hour on a Tuesday morning and have space for new members. For further information, please contact Charmaine Mhlanga on cmhlanga@hotmail.com

This month's featured events:

Hope for Justice conference - Saturday 13 April

This day conference from the Racial Justice Advocacy Forum (RJAF) will focus on the critical issue of police and criminal justice reform/transformation within Britain, specifically from the perspective of racial justice. This meeting is your opportunity to share your views and vision for policing in Britain, as we journey toward the third decade of the 21st century. Your lived experience and insight will significantly contribute to the conference, making it a truly impactful and meaningful event.
