

Sam Sharpe Project

for education, research and community building

The Annual Sam Sharpe Lecture - 2024

Hosted in partnership with the Centre for Black Theology at The Queen's Foundation for Ecumenical Theological Education

'Fighting for Freedom, Fighting for Wholeness: Revolutionary Reactions to Colonial Christianity' delivered by

The Revd Dr Carlton Turner

Tutor in Contextual Theology and Mission Studies at the Queen's Foundation

with Dr Dulcie Dixon McKenzie - Lecture Facilitator

Thursday 24 October - 19:30 with an optional meal for delegates at 18:00 and Reception afterwards at:

The Queen's Foundation for Ecumenical Theological Education, Birmingham

Find more information and register to attend or join online at:

www.baptist.org.uk/samsharpelecture

"I would rather die upon yonder gallows, than live in slavery."

