

Online Taster Session for Pastoral Supervision

Monday 27th April 2026

10.00 to 12.30 hrs

(Please note that this date has been changed from earlier publicity)

Are you looking for someone to accompany you in your ministry and look with you at different aspects of your work, enabling you to grow and thrive in your calling?

Are you wanting to understand more about what a commitment to pastoral supervision might involve?

Do you seek to follow the CMD habit of accountability and explore whether pastoral supervision might be the appropriate way for you to do this?

Then set aside 2.5 hours of your time for this taster session to find out all about it.

Topics will include....

- Biblical and theological reflections on accompaniment
- Key elements of pastoral supervision
- Stories from ministers who have engaged in pastoral supervision
- How pastoral supervision is different from mentoring, coaching or spiritual direction
- Demonstrating what a typical pastoral supervision session looks like
- Practical matters relating to commitment, costs, boundaries, confidentiality etc
- Preparing for supervision
- How to access pastoral supervision
- Opportunity for group discussion and questions

The session will involve the use of breakout rooms, and there will be a 10 minute break part way through!

Session facilitated by....

- Rev'd Paul Campion, Pastoral Supervisor and Accompaniment Coordinator for Baptists Together

- Rev'd Jill Willett, Pastoral Supervisor and Spiritual Director

- Rev'd Dawn Johnson, Pastoral Supervisor and Integrative Counsellor

Booking...

Please email accompanimentcoordinator@baptist.org.uk to book your place by Friday 17th April 2026. A zoom link will be sent to all those attending after the deadline for bookings.

Feedback will be invited from those participating in this session to assist with future planning. It is anticipated that there will be a further pastoral supervision taster session later in the year.
